DECISION AWARDING ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

On November 13, 2014, petitioner filed a petition under the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-10–34 (2012) (“Vaccine Act”) alleging she suffered injuries including panuveitis, uveitis, and vasculitis as a result of her receipt of the diphtheria-tetanus-acellular pertussis (“Tdap”) vaccine on January 20, 2012. On March 4, 2016, the undersigned issued a decision awarding compensation to petitioner based on the parties’ stipulation.

On August 29, 2016, petitioner filed a motion for attorneys’ fees and costs. Petitioner requests a total award of $22,813.97 in attorneys' fees and costs. In compliance with General Order #9, petitioner states she incurred no out-of-pocket expenses.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. 42 U.S.C. § 300 aa-15(e). Based on the reasonableness of petitioner's request and the lack of opposition, the undersigned GRANTS petitioner's application for attorneys' fees and costs.

Accordingly, the undersigned awards the total amount of $22,813.97, as a lump sum in the form of a check payable jointly to petitioner and Ward Black Law.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment herewith.²
